We take pride in our food and service; if there is a problem with either, please bring it to the attention of Eli (4th generation), Brad (5th generation) or one of the managers. Either Eli, Brad, Phyllis, Rusty, Rita, or Maier Hyman are always in the building ensuring our guaranteed satisfaction. No ifs, ands, or buts.

OUR HOUSE RULES ARE:

Rule #1 – The customer is always right.

Rule #2 – When in doubt, refer back to Rule #1.

P.S. We, or any restaurant for that matter, are only as good as the last meal we serve. We take customer satisfaction very seriously, if you like us, tell others. If you don't, tell us!!

OUR FAMILY HISTORY

This historic block was the wholesale district in the 1800s. Eli and Aaron's great-grandfather, W.M. Karesh started Southern Wholesale in this location in 1890. This became one of our first distributors of Union & Hanes underwear in the Southeast.

Wolf Maier Karesh's son-in-law, Herman Hyman, took over the business in 1924, changing the name to Hyman's Wholesale Company. He then passed the business down to the third generation, to Wolf Maier Hyman, who continued on with the wholesale dry goods business until 1986. (He presently lives on the 3rd floor) At that time the Omni hotel was under construction and the City condemned the back 280 feet of these warehouses to make room for a parking garage. The floors are heart pine and the bricks are Old English, with the original Oyster mortar. The wrought iron stair case was built in Kenton, Ohio in 1887 and shipped to Charleston upon construction of this building.

Eli and Aaron Hyman, the great grandsons, changed the name from Hyman's Wholesale to Hyman's Seafood and Aaron's Deli in 1986, and are now operating Hyman's Seafood and Aaron's Deli in these same locations. Brad, Aaron's son-in-law (5th generation) is Eli's operating partner today. There has been 118 years of customer service in these buildings and they are proud of it. If you happen to see Eli, Brad, Mother Phyllis, Maier Hyman, Rita, Rusty or Phyllis Doobrow tell them hello. For those who are curious, we employ between 160-190 GREAT people!

For more fun facts - see the table binder!
